MALISA X MAHASAMUT TRAILS 2026

3 Days 2 Nights

15-17 May, 2026

MALISA X MAHASAMUT TRAILS

MALISA X MAHASAMUT TRAILS 2026 Curated in collaboration with Mahasamut Trails, this experience positions movement as a form of exploration and well-being, while supporting sustainable, health-focused tourism in Phuket. Malisa x Mahasamut Trails 2026 redefines the trail journey as not only a physical challenge, but a thoughtful encounter with landscape, community, and the island's enduring natural beauty.

Trail running in Phuket has emerged as a powerful way to reimagine the island beyond its familiar beaches, revealing elevated viewpoints, hidden shores, and community forests that reflect the island's natural and cultural diversity. The Mahasamut trail route weaves through some of Phuket's most striking yet understated landscapes — from Black Rock View Point and Nai Harn Beach to Windmill View Point, Yanui Beach, Promthep Cape, Laem Krathing, Nui Beach, Kata Community Forest, Three Bays View Point, and local rubber plantations — forming a continuous narrative of sea, forest, and local life.

MAHASAMUT TRAILS

MAHASAMUT TRAIL creates a meaningful connection between movement and nature, rooted in Phuket's dramatic coastal and forest landscapes. The trail experience invites participants to explore iconic areas such as Black Rock, Laem Krathing, and Promthep Cape, reimagining the island beyond conventional tourism. By combining adventure sport with mindful exploration, Mahasamut Trail supports sustainable tourism, strengthens Phuket's identity as a sports and wellness destination, and contributes positively to local communities and the natural environment.

PHUKET ISLAND

Phuket is one of Thailand's most iconic island destinations, celebrated for its stunning beaches, rich cultural heritage, and relaxed tropical lifestyle. From crystal-clear waters and lush landscapes to vibrant local communities and timeless charm, Phuket offers an inspiring blend of natural beauty, tradition, and effortless island elegance.
